A. Public Participation at Board Meetings

President Smith welcomed Mrs. Prentice's economic students to the Board meeting. (Byron, Christian, Esmeralda, and Stacy)

Stacy Lainez, a PHS student wanted to know, if the District is expecting the graduation rate to be 100%, how far are they willing to go to get to that percentage? Dr. Fine commented the District has created new programs, such as the Summit Academy which was established so students can gain credits and move towards graduation. Students can earn college credits. There are elementary transition classes and additional support for students falling behind during the school day. Stacy inquired if the District could do something with transportation for the high school and middle school levels. She stated it is discouraging walking to school especially in the winter time.
